ORDER

A pretrial conference is set for March 1, 2000 at 4:45 PM.

The jury trial in this action will be held on July 18, 2000 at 9:30 AM. The parties are hereby GRANTED a term of fifteen (15) days after notice to inform of any calendar conflicts or other reasons which may justify a continuance of this setting. The parties are admonished that if no objections are raised to this setting within the term allowed, NO CONTINUANCES WILL LATER BE GRANTED. They are expressly advised that trial will not be continued because counsel have agreed to recommend a settlement. A trial date will be passed ONLY IF A SETTLEMENT HAS BEEN FIRMLY BOUND.

The parties are advised that pursuant to an order of the Court entered on October 25, 1996 by unanimous agreement of the Active Judges in Miscellaneous No. 96-125(CCC), the following order of procedure was established to resolve calendar conflicts amongst judicial officers:

25

CIVIL 98-1873CCC

2

- a. Trials shall take precedence over all other hearings.
- b. Jury trials shall take precedence over non-jury trials.
- c. Criminal cases shall take precedence over civil cases.
- d. Criminal cases involving defendants in custody shall take precedence over other criminal cases.
- e. Among criminal cases not involving defendants who are in custody, the case having the earliest docket number shall take precedence over the others.
- f. Among civil cases, the case having the earliest docket number shall take precedence over the others.

Counsel are advised that, pursuant to such Order, when there is a conflict between court appearances they have the obligation to notify the Courtroom Deputy of each Judge involved, in writing, not later than three (3) business days after receipt of the notice giving rise to the conflict, indicating the names and docket numbers of each case and the date and time of the conflicting hearings.

SO ORDERED.

At San Juan, Puerto Rico, on October 25, 1999.

IN RE: SERVICES OF COURT INTERPRETERS

In order to effectively administer the services of Court Interpreters, you are required to submit an Interpreter Requisition Form for every civil case. (See form attached).

This form must be submitted immediately after the case is set for trial or for any other hearing requiring the service of an interpreter. It may be delivered personally to any of our Intake Clerks or it may be sent by mail.

The form must be in our office one week prior to the scheduled trial or hearing to facilitate the assignment of the Court Interpreter. This procedure becomes effective this 29th day of May, 1992.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 30th day of May, 1992.

Lydia Pelegrín
Clerk of Court
